

UPDATEThis is a follow up to the earlier press release. The missing person, Waymon Sullivan has been found in good health. He was located, this afternoon, March 15, 2016, in Brooklyn Center and will be reunited with his family soon. One suspect has been arrested with formal felony charges being sent to the Wadena County Attorney's Office. No further information is available as this investigation is ongoing by the Sheriff's Office. Sheriff Carr would like to thank the public for any assistance during this investigation. Sheriff Carr also expresses his gratitude to other Law Enforcement agencies and his Staff that assisted and are continuing with the investigation.