I. Overview

A. Purpose

The Wadena County Board of Commissioners, herein referred to as the County Board or Board, is the body charged by law with the management of the affairs of Wadena County. The County Board operates as a deliberative and legislative assembly, meeting to discuss and determine the direction and policies of the County within the confines of State and Federal law.

The County Board functions within the statutory framework of Minnesota Law. General duties, powers and responsibilities are found in Minnesota Statutes, especially but not exclusively Chapters 370, 373 and 375. Minnesota Statutes supersede all bylaws, rules and policies established by the Board.

The Operating Rules and Guidelines, herein referred to as Operating Rules, of the Wadena County Board of Commissioners are intended to facilitate the transaction of business by the County Board, County staff and the established committees. The following principles shall guide the County Board in its interpretation and application of the Operating Rules.

B. Statement of Principles

The Operating Rules are designed to produce a procedural balance that considers all principles and articulates a specific process by which those principles interact and work. The Operating Rules are representative of the organization's values of respect, stewardship, integrity, collaboration, empowerment and equity, as well as the County's Mission Statement:

The mission of Wadena County is to provide quality services to meet public needs in an efficient, respectful and professional manner.

C. Effective Date

These rules shall become effective upon passage by the County Board on May 2, 2017.

II. Amendments to the Operating Rules

Any member of the County Board may initiate action to amend the Operating Rules. Amendments to the Operating Rules may also be initiated by the Clerk to the Board.

During the statutory meeting (first Tuesday after the first Monday of each year), the County Board shall review, amend if necessary, and adopt the Operating Rules for the year.

At any time throughout the year, the County Board may amend (or suspend) the Operating Rules by an affirmative vote of the members. Changes shall be effective immediately upon passage.

The statute references included in the text are current as of the adoption of the Operating Rules. Any changes in statute or law affecting the Operating Rules are effective immediately and will be reflected in the next draft of the Operating Rules.

III. County Board Organization

A. Membership

The County Board of Commissioners consists of five (5) members elected from single-member districts apportioned on the basis of population as provided by law.

B. Commissioner District

The boundaries of commissioner districts, including the procedures to follow in the event that a redistricting is needed, are established pursuant to Minnesota Statute §375.025.

C. Terms of Office

The term of each Board member is four years, except as otherwise established pursuant to Minnesota Statute §375.03.

D. Vacancy

A vacancy in the office of County Board is filled in one of two ways, pursuant to Minnesota Statute §375.101. A vacancy may be filled at a special election to be held not fewer than 30 nor more than 90 days after the vacancy occurs. The special primary or special election may be held on the same day as a regular primary or regular election but the special election shall be held not fewer than 14 days after the special primary. The person elected at the special election shall take office immediately after receipt of the certificate of election and upon filing the bond and taking the oath of office and shall serve the remainder of the unexpired term.

If the vacancy occurs fewer than 60 days before the general election preceding the end of the term, the vacancy shall be filled by the person elected at the general election for the ensuing term. That person shall take office immediately after receiving the certificate of election, filing the bond and taking the oath of office.

A vacancy may be filled by Board appointment at a regular or special meeting. The appointment shall be evidenced by a resolution entered into the minutes and shall continue until an election is held. All elections to fill vacancies shall be for the unexpired term. If the vacancy occurs before the first day to file affidavits of candidacy for the next county general election and more than two years remain in the unexpired term, a special election shall be held in conjunction with the county general election. The appointed person shall serve until the qualification of the successor elected to fill the unexpired part of the term at that special election. If the vacancy occurs on or after the first day to file affidavits of candidacy for the county general election, or when less than two years remain in the unexpired term, there shall be no special election to fill the vacancy and the appointed person shall serve the remainder of the unexpired term and until a successor is elected and qualifies at the county general election.

E. Officers

The County Board, at its statutory meeting (first Tuesday after the first Monday of each year), elects from its members a Chair and a Vice-Chair. The Chair presides at the County Board meetings, decides on questions of order, and signs all documents requiring signature on the Board's behalf. The Chair's signature, attested to by the Clerk to the Board, is binding as the signature of the County Board.

The County Board elects from its membership a Vice Chair at the same time and place and in the same manner as provided for the election of the Chair. The Vice Chair performs the duties of the Chair when the Chair is unable to perform those duties.

If the Chair and Vice-Chair are absent from any meeting, the members present shall choose one of their members as temporary Chair, and all documents requiring the signature of the County Board shall be signed by a majority of the Board and attested to by the Clerk to the Board (Minnesota Statute §375.13).

F. Compensation

County Board members receive as compensation for services an annual salary as set by resolution of the County Board. The salary must be established prior to the end of the preceding year, and is effective January 1 of the New Year. The resolution shall contain a statement of the new salary as defined on an annual basis and must be published in the official County newspaper and one other newspaper of the County (Minnesota Statute §375.055).

Prior to the effective date of a new salary, each County Board member shall have the option to accept or reject any salary increase in writing in a form prescribed by the County Board.

G. Indemnification

B. Statutory Meeting

The County Board meets in the Small Courtroom of the Wadena County Courthouse in Wadena, Minnesota for the transaction of business on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January. The County Board transacts organizational business during this meeting, including:

1. Administration of the Oath of Office (if required)
2. Election of officers
3. Appointments of Board Committee positions
4. Appointments to serve on Inter-agency boards
5. Appointments to serve on Internal committees
6. Appointments to serve as Liaisons

C. Open Meeting Law

All meetings of the Wadena County Board of Commissioners and Board Committees are subject to the Open Meeting Law (Minnesota Statute §13D.01, 13D.02, and 13D.021).

D. Closed Meetings

The County Board may hold closed meetings as authorized by MN Stat. §13D.05. Business which may be considered in closed session is in accordance with the attorney/client privilege, to consider strategy for labor negotiations, pending or actual litigation and job evaluations or as otherwise required or permitted by the Minnesota Open Meeting Law.

Before closing a meeting, the Board will state on record the specific grounds permitting the meeting to be closed and describe the subject to be discussed.

E. Special/Emergency Meetings

The Wadena County Board may by Board action establish a special or emergency meeting. Special meetings shall be preceded by three days' notice, including a posting of the meeting notice on the Wadena County Website and either (1) mailed, emailed, or delivered notice to persons who have requested such notice, or (2) publication of the notice in the official newspaper (Minnesota Statute §13D.04). Procedures to schedule a special meeting shall be in accordance with Minnesota Statutes.

Adjourned or reconvened meetings may be held at any specific time, date and place the Board may adopt without additional notice. However, the time, date and place must be publicly specified by the Board prior to adjourning the meeting in which the time, date and place are established.

Members of the County Board are entitled to ten days' notice of Board meetings. A meeting cannot be held without such notice unless each member has consented to holding a special meeting (Minnesota Statute §13D.04).

The County Board may schedule work sessions, workshops, retreats, forums, or additional meetings at such times and concerning such subjects as may be established by action of the Board. A schedule of such meetings shall be maintained in the County Auditor/Treasurer's office. Work sessions and other informal meetings of the Board, not regularly held, shall be subject to the same notice requirements of the Open Meeting Law.

A joint meeting with the Wadena County Board and any other political subdivision may be held within the boundaries of either subdivision and will be specified in the meeting notice.

F. Workshops

The County Board may conduct workshops to receive information from staff or outside agencies regarding current or upcoming issues or projects in advance of being requested to take formal action, if needed. While Board workshops are subject to the Open Meeting Law (Minnesota Statutes §13D.01), no formal action is taken.

G. Public Hearings

From time to time, the County Board conducts formal public hearings. In addition to those required by law, the County Board may hold public hearings on matters of business when it decides that such hearings are in the best interest of the general public or issues under consideration. The order of business for public hearings generally follows this procedure:

1. Presiding officer opens the hearing and states the purpose.
2. Brief description of issue by County staff or other appropriate persons.
3. Presentation, if applicable, by affected or interested persons.
4. Open discussion by members of the general public.
5. Discussion by the County Board.
6. Public hearing closed by Chair.
7. Decision of the County Board.

At any time during the process, the County Board may address any questions as deemed appropriate.

The County Board may alter the public hearing procedure as needed to assure that the hearings are conducted in an orderly, fair and expeditious manner, including establishing reasonable time limits of five to ten minutes for speakers individually or on each side of the issue before the Board.

Rules adopted for public hearing procedures are intended to promote an orderly discussion, to give every person an opportunity to be heard, and to ensure that no individual is embarrassed by exercising the right to free speech.

All comments by members of the public shall be made at the microphones and individuals making comments shall first give his or her name and address. This is required for an official record of the public hearing. Members of the public interested in addressing the County Board are requested to sign in and make it known at the appropriate time that they wish to speak.

H. Audience/Citizen Requests

The County Board prefers all business matters initiated by citizens coming before them to first be reviewed by staff and scheduled for discussion on the County Board agenda.

If an individual seeks to appear before the County Board, he or she should notify the Clerk to the Board of his/her intention and the issue to be presented. Staff will confer with the individual, address the issue and, if necessary, schedule the issue accordingly on the County Board agenda.

For an individual who appears at a County Board meeting unaware of Board operating procedure, a Recognition of Interested Citizens section is included on the meeting agenda. The maximum length of time for an item to be presented in this section is five minutes. In general, before taking action, the County Board will direct the item to the appropriate staff for further review and recommendation.

When a citizen requests that a letter become part of the official record of a County Board meeting, the commissioner to whom the letter was addressed or the Chair of the Board (if the letter was addressed to all members of the County Board) will note receipt of the letter - including the writer's name, the topic of the letter, and the request that it be made a part of the official record - during the Board meeting.

I. Board Committees

For the purpose of assisting the Board in carrying on its business, committees shall be formed and shall be composed of members as determined by resolution of the Board. Minutes of the committee meetings shall be kept and shall become official upon approval of the committee. All actions of the committees are considered recommendations to the County Board.

J. Quorum

A quorum is necessary for the transaction of business. A majority of the members of the County Board constitutes a quorum and no business shall be transacted unless approved by a majority (three votes) of the whole County Board (Minnesota Statute §375.07). Less than a majority of members may convene a meeting, but no business may be transacted. Less than a majority may adjourn the meeting.

Any County Board member who, for any reason, anticipates or plans an absence at any regular or special meeting is encouraged to contact the County Board Chair or the Clerk to the Board to indicate his planned absence.

K. Role of Presiding Officer

6. May make a motion, and has the same voting rights and responsibilities as other members.

L. Addressing the Chair

Formal protocol is used when speaking to the County Board. The County Board Chair is addressed as "Mr. Chair." Members of the public may speak on any matter before the County Board when recognized by the Chair and within established procedures as outlined in the Operating Rules.

M. Clerk to the Board

The Clerk to the Board or designee shall attend all meetings of the County Board, with the exception of some closed meetings. The Clerk to the Board may participate in the discussion or recommend a resolution or action to the County Board. A member of the Board may call on the Clerk to the Board to participate in the discussion or request a verbal recommendation on any subject pending before the Board.

The Clerk to the Board or designee shall prepare a written agenda for all regular and special meetings of the County Board. The Clerk to the Board or designee also:

1. Keeps a record of all Board resolutions and Motions;
2. Records the vote of each member on any resolution questions submitted to the Board;
3. Preserves and files all business acted upon by the Board;
4. Certifies, under seal of the County, copies of any and all resolutions or decisions of the Board; and
5. Performs such further duties as designated by the Board.

V. Rules of Procedure

A. Statement of Purpose of the Board

The Wadena County Board of Commissioners is the body charged by law with the ultimate management and control of all of the affairs of Wadena County. As such, it operates as a deliberative and legislative assembly, meeting to discuss and determine the direction and policies of the County within the framework of state and federal law and ordinances the County Board may adopt. The various elected and appointed officials charged by law or the County Board with the operation of substantive areas of service delivery must conduct the management of their respective departments within the limits established by law and the County Board.

B. Statement of Principles of the Rules

The foundation for Rules of Order lies in the basic and enduring principles of rights. Specifically enunciated, these rights include the right of the majority to rule, the right of the minority to be heard, and the right of the individual to participate in the decision-making process. Along with these rights are important canons of efficiency; namely, attend to one matter at a time, and the balancing of the affirmative and negative factions to a pending matter.

Finally, the Rules foster courtesy and decorum, holding firm to the maxim that one must debate motions, not members.

C. Statement of Purpose of the Rules

The Rules intend to strike a procedural balance that considers all principles and enunciates a specific process by which those principles interact and work. The Rules are representative of the principles, both to give specific guidance on method and to provide a reasonable compromise in the event of conflict.

D. Making a Motion.

1. Obtain the floor (when no other question is pending).
2. State the motion.
3. Another member seconds the motion.
4. Chairperson states the question on the motion to the group.
 - Motion is now pending before the membership and open to debate.

Notes: Discussion of a subject is permitted only with reference to the pending motion and after the seconding of the motion.

- Point of order that motion has not been seconded may not be made after debate or the taking of the vote has begun.

E. Consideration of a Motion

1. Debate (unless no member claims the floor for that purpose).
2. Chairperson puts the question to a vote.
3. Chairperson announces the result of the vote.

Notes: Maker of motion receives first opportunity at debate.

- Individual member's vote may be changed up until announcement of vote by Chairperson.
- General or unanimous consent. The Chair specifies an action and announces that if there is no objection, the action will be considered adopted. If no member objects, then the matter is adopted. If a member does object, the matter may not proceed by consensus but must be considered through the motion process to a formal vote.

F. Types of Motions

1. Main Motion
 - A. A motion that brings before the members, for their consideration, any particular subject independent of any other pending motion or parliamentary situation.
 - B. May be made only when no other motion is pending.
2. Secondary Motion - May be made when a main motion is pending and must be acted upon or disposed of before direct consideration of the main motion may be continued.

- A. Subsidiary Motions
 1. Motion to Lay on the Table
 - a. Removes the main motion from consideration and entrusts it to the care of the secretary until its consideration is resumed at an unspecified future time.
 2. Motion to Close, Limit, or Extend Limits of Debate
 - a. May be applied to one or more pending motions in sequence (but must specify which motions).
 - b. Requires a two-thirds vote.
 3. Motion to Postpone to a Certain Time
 - a. Sets the specific time for reconsideration (usually not much longer than the next meeting).
 4. Motion to Commit or Refer:

Sends a pending motion to a committee, usually with instructions.
 5. Motion to Amend:

Four forms:

 - a. Insert certain words.
 - b. Strike out certain words.
 - c. Strike out certain words and insert others in same spot.
 - d. Substitute an entire paragraph or the entire text of a motion on the same subject for the one pending. Term may not be applied to anything less than a complete paragraph.
 6. Motion to Postpone Indefinitely
 - a. To remove the main motion from the Board's consideration for the session without a direct vote on it.

Notes: Subsidiary motions assist the Board in treating or disposing of a main motion.

- Subsidiary motions are always applied to another motion (it changes the other motion in some way without expressly adopting or rejecting it).
- Subsidiary motions can be applied to any main motion.
- Subsidiary motions must fit into the order of precedence.
- The time when a subsidiary motion is in order extends from the time the motion to which it applies is stated by the chair until the chair begins to take a vote on that motion.
- After a vote has been ordered by the adoption of a motion for the previous question and before this vote has been taken, no subsidiary motion can be made except the motion to lay on the table.
- All subsidiary motions require a second and most allow only limited, if any, debate or amendment.

- B. Privileged Motions
 1. Adjourn: ends a meeting
 2. Short intermission when a question is pending. The length of the recess may be debated.
 3. Raise a question of privilege:
 - a. Questions relating to the rights and benefits of the Board or one or more of the members.
 - b. Typically involves the comfort of members, their ability to see and hear speakers, the conduct of officers, members or guests, or the accuracy of published reports of the proceedings.
 4. Call for orders of the day:
 - a. Motion urging compliance with an agreement concerning the timing of an item of business, e.g. items scheduled through adoption of an agenda cannot interrupt a pending motion. Robert's Rules of Order (Newly Revised) indicates that a call for an order of the day requires, rather than urges, as assembly to comply with its agenda or schedule, etc., unless two-thirds of the voting members wish otherwise.

Notes: Privileged motions do not relate to pending business, but have to do with special matters of immediate importance.

- All must be seconded and may not be debated or amended.
- Privileged motions take precedence over motions of any other class.

C. Incidental Motions

1. Point of order and appeal:
 - a. Assertion that a rule is being violated and a request that the rule be enforced by the chairperson. A point of order does not require a second.
 - b. An appeal, which must be seconded, takes the questions from the Chair and vests the assembly with authority for a final decision on an alleged rule violation.
2. Object to the consideration of a question:
 - a. Purpose is to enable the Board to avoid altogether any motion that it may deem irrelevant, unprofitable, or contentious.
 - b. Does not require a second.
 - c. Requires a two-thirds vote against consideration.
 - d. Must be raised before there has been any debate or any subsidiary motion has been stated by the Chairperson.
3. Withdraw or modify a motion:
 - a. When a motion has been made but not yet been stated by the Chair, it can be withdrawn or modified by the mover.
 - b. To withdraw or modify a motion already stated by the Chair:
 - Mover must ask for permission to withdraw or modify
 - Chairperson attempts to get general consent.
 - c. If general consent not given:
 - If modifying, motion to amend
 - If withdrawing, vote on motion to withdraw
4. Suspend the rules:
 - a. Renders temporarily ineffective one or more rules of order.
 - b. Rules protecting absentees or a basic right of the individual may not be suspended.
 - c. Requires a second.

Note: An incidental motion is in order only when it is legitimately incidental to another pending motion, or when it is legitimately incidental in some other way to business at hand; it then takes precedence over any other motions that are pending.

The following parliamentary steps do not require a second:

1. Calling for a point of order, point of information, separate vote or motion to grant request of another member for permission to withdraw or modify a motion.
2. Objection to the consideration of a question, before discussion has begun.
3. Objection to proceeding as a matter of general consensus, for example: removing a matter from the Consent Agenda.

D. Unclassified Motions

1. Motion to Reconsider:
 - a. If a motion has been either adopted or defeated during a meeting and at least one member who voted on the winning side wants to have the vote reconsidered, such a member may make the motion to RECONSIDER. The second to the motion can be made by any member regardless of how they voted. The motion can only be made at the same day as the vote sought, or unless the meeting was recessed, on the day following the passage or defeat of the motion. The motion to Reconsider requires a majority vote.

2. Motions to Rescind or Amend Something Previously Adopted:
 - a. Both of these motions are treated as Main Motions. A member may introduce either of these motions regardless of how they voted on the subject originally. They can be made if no action has been taken on the original motion passed.
 - b. If previous notice (on the published agenda or announcing at the prior meeting your intent) has been given regarding one of these motions, then a majority vote is required for rescinding action.
 - c. If previous notice is not given on one of these motions and is added to the agenda, then a two-thirds vote is required.
3. Renewal:
 - a. Making a motion again after it has been defeated is called a called a Renewal of the motion. While the motion to reconsider must be made at the same meeting, the motion to Renew can be made at any subsequent meeting by any member, and requires a majority vote.

G. Order of Precedence of Motions

The twelve commonly-used motions below have a fixed rank, called the order of precedence, among them. When one of the motions is pending, any motion higher on the list is permitted, and any motion lower on the list is prohibited, except that to amend or to order the previous questions on an amenable higher-ranking motion is permitted when the higher ranking motion is pending. They are proposed in any upward sequence and put to vote in the opposite downward sequence.

- Adjourn
- Recess
- Raise a question of privilege
- Call for the orders of the day
- Lay on the table
- Order the previous question (close debate)
- Limit or extend limits of debate
- Postpone Definitely
- Commit or Refer
- Amend
- Postpone Indefinitely
- Main Motion

H. Objects of Motions

The object of a motion is a usual purpose for which the motion is offered. Many motions have more than one object, and many objects can be met by more than one motion. The fact that a motion has a specific object does not mean it is not permissible to use that motion for a somewhat different object.

There are eight common objects, and the list below shows the motions commonly employed with those objects.

1. To change: amend, commit, or modify a motion.
2. To defer: postpone definitely, or lay on the table, commit.
3. To suppress debate: order the previous question (close debate), limit debate.
4. To suppress the motion: object to consideration, postpone indefinitely, or lay on the table.
5. To consider again: reconsider, renew, or mend after adoption.
6. To correct errors or deal with exceptions: point of order, appeal call or orders of the day, or suspend the rules.
7. To interrupt or end a meeting: adjourn or recess.

8. Other: withdraw a motion, raise a question or privilege.

I. When Motions are Out of Order

1. If the motion conflicts with governmental laws, requirements of a parent organization, bylaws, rules of order, or standing rules.
2. If the motion presents substantially the same question as a motion previously decided at the same session or if it conflicts with a motion that has been adopted at any previous time and still in force.
3. If the motion conflicts with or presents substantially the same question as one still within the control of the Board.
4. If the motion contains language not allowed in debate, except as may be necessary to quote in a motion of disciplinary nature.
5. If the motion is patently frivolous, dilatory, or absurd. A motion is out of order if it is so insignificant it is apparently introduced only for comic purposes, or it obstructs the known will of the Board or if it does not make sense.

J. When to Proceed by Consensus, Motion, Resolution, or Ordinance

1. Consensus:
 - a. Vote not needed.
 - b. No controversy
 - c. Generally used to direct staff.
2. Motion:
 - a. Most frequently used; vote by majority.
 - b. Generally not sufficiently formalized to satisfy most statutory requirements specifying action and voting of the Board.
 - c. Does not require members to be polled or individual vote recorded.
3. Resolution:
 - a. Most frequently required by statute to formalize an act of the Board
 - b. Some statutes require super-majority vote (greater than 3-2) of Resolutions.
 - c. Independent record kept generally by year, in chronological order, e.g., first Resolution of 2017 numbered 2017-001, 2017-002, etc.
4. Ordinances:
 - a. Used only to enact local law.
 - b. Formal publication requirements of hearing and ordinance.
 - c. Independent record kept in compliance of Wadena County Ordinances.

IF AN ISSUE IS NOT COVERED UNDER THE WADENA COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS' RULES OF PROCEDURE, ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER, (NEWLY REVISED) WILL APPLY.

VI. Types of Board Action

A. Resolution

The County Board takes formal actions by resolution (MN Stat. § 373.02), ordinance (MN Stat. §375.51), or a motion, second and majority support by members of the Board for a Request for Board Action (RBA). A motion may be introduced by any member of the County Board.

The main motion in the form of a resolution is the means by which a member may present a substantive proposal to the County Board for consideration and action. Since it is the basic motion for the transaction of business, only one subject may be considered at a time and the main motion may be postponed only when no other motions are before the County Board. (See Section IV).

B. Ordinance

The County Board may take formal action by ordinance (MN Stat. §375.51). An ordinance is a legislative act prescribing general, uniform, and permanent rules of conduct relating to the affairs of the County Board. Action shall be taken by ordinance when required by law, or to prescribe permanent rules of conduct which continue in force until repealed, or where such conduct is enforced by penalty.

C. Request for Board Action (motion)

Any member of the County Board may move a Request for Board Action (RBA). When supported by another member of the Board and majority vote in favor, the action is approved.

D. General Consensus

The County Board provides informal direction by consensus. Informal direction is most often used to provide staff with preliminary County Board perspective on a matter which will require future formal action. Informal direction is also used to provide additional insight into formal actions previously taken. Informal direction standing alone does not establish County Board policy.

E. Policy Development

Authority for the development of policies in Wadena County is granted to the County Board through Minnesota Statutes Chapter 373 (Counties, Powers, Duties and Privileges), and in other statutes.

With the powers granted within these statutes, the County Board may delegate certain authority, as appropriate. These delegations on authority may be rescinded at any time by the County Board.

The County Board may at any time refer an item or resolution to the appropriate Committee for further review and deliberation.

VII. County Board Agenda

A. Preparation and Distribution

The Clerk to the Board shall cause preparation of the agenda and supporting material for each regular and special meeting. Members of the Board may request an item to be placed on the Agenda by informing the Clerk to the Board.

The Agenda and Board Approved Minutes are available on the Wadena County website at www.co.wadena.mn.us/

B. Order of Business

The order of business for each regular meeting of the County Board shall be as follows:

1. Call to Order
2. Pledge of Allegiance
3. Amendments to the Agenda
4. Recognition of Interested Citizens
5. Approval of Minutes
6. Consent Agenda
7. Regular Agenda
8. Committee Reports/Commissioner Updates
9. Attorney/Client Meeting
10. Adjournment

The Order of Business may be changed as needed to accomplish objectives and priorities of the meeting. The Order of Business may be changed at the recommendation of the Chair, any members of the Board or the Clerk to the Board subject to County Board consensus.

C. Consent Agenda

The Consent Agenda consists of routine agenda items which are not likely to require additional debate and discussion. Examples of Consent Agenda items include, but are not limited to, renewal of licenses, charitable gambling requests, acceptance of donations, personnel actions, grant applications, acceptance of grant dollars, miscellaneous contract renewals, and approval of the Auditor's Warrants (payment of bills).
